SOUTHEASTERN PART OF STATE IS FACING PERIOD OF PROSPERITY

Col. Ralph Emerson Twitchell, chairman of the New Mexico board of managers of the San Diego exposition, was in the city for a short time last night on his way home to Las Vegas from a visit to the Pecos valley in the interest of the exposition. Encouraging meetings were held, he reported, in Loving, Otero and Carlsbad, in Eddy county. Roswell in Chaves county, Portales in Roosevelt county, and Clovis in Curry county. The southeastern part of the state is facing a period of prosperity, the Colonel said. The Roswell and Carlsbad country will turn out bumper crops, and things are better than they have been for six years about Clovis. The successful future of the country east of the Pecos on the Belen cut-off is assured, declared Colonel Twitchell.

MEXICANS GUARDED WELL AT FORT SAYS HERRING

Adjutant General Inspects Prison Camp as Guest of Army Officers. No Danger of Escape.

Adjutant Harry T. Herring paid a visit yesterday to the prison camp at Fort Wingate, where 5,000 Mexican Federal refugees are held by the United States government. The adjutant general went to Gallup with Governor McDonald and State School Superintendent White to take part in the high school exercises there last night, and when the governor and the superintendent went on a tour of the mines, the general seized the opportunity to make a trip to Wingate, which is not far from Gallup.

He was given a tour of the prison camp, met many officers with whom he is acquainted among the regulars on guard at the camp, and he was shown everything there was to see in the internment camp. He was, like everyone else who has ever seen the motley collection of ragged soldiers, women and children who fled from Villa across the border, deeply impressed by the sight to do justice to his impressions in words. It was a sight that would linger long in his memory, he said today on his return to Gallup.

The general said that the prisoners were amply guarded by the United States army force now at the fort, and of the 5,000 or 6,000 men who were held, they couldn't get anywhere in time to do anything. The fort is so situated that the surrounding country offers no facilities for flight in concert.
